ATHLETICS TAKE FOURTH OF SERIES

Defeat Giants in Philadelphia by Score of Six to Five.

CINCH THE SERIES.

Bender Again Victor But is Pushed Hard in Last Two Innings by New Yorkers.

Philadelphia, Oct. 10.—The Athletics heavy slugging won the fourth game today by the score of 6 to 5. Bender had the Giants at his mercy until the seventh when they scored five runs in the seventh and eighth. Demaree was replaced by Marquard.

Shibe Park, Philadelphia, Oct. 10.—Twenty thousand excited Philadelphians and some hundred anxious New Yorkers came out to Shibe Park today to see the New York National league champions engage the Philadelphia Athletics in the fourth game of the world's ball series. A victory for the Philadelphia club today would make it only necessary for them to win another game to capture the base ball honors for 1913, while the Giants would have to reel off three straights to win the series.

Still another murky day was furnished for the sport. Dull clouds screened the sun, giving indications of showery weather, while now and then a vagrant drop of rain fell. The diamond was in fine condition and the players said it was lightening fast, but the outer meadows were sodden and slow.

The fielding practice of the Giants was punctuated with brilliant fielding and snappy throwing.

The Atheltics also showed fine form in fielding practice and came in for loud cheers from the home crowd.

Bender and Schang were selected as the battery for Philadelphia while Demaree and McLean were picked to work for New York.

Snodgrass went to center and Shafer to third, Snodgrass batting first, in Herzog's place in the line-up.

The crowd filled the unreserved stand long before the players came on the field, but the reserved sections filled slowly, and it was not until the fielding practice had ended that the last of the seats was occupied.

There were lively times around Shibe Park in the early morning hours. More than 1,000 fans were in line at 7 o'clock, when the night police detail was shifted to the day squads. While the change was being made the police for a time lost control, and there were free fights in several places about the park for positions in the lines. Strong men pulled weaker ones out of their places, boxes and boards were thrown and there was a general mixing up when the full detail of police arrived and restored order. At 9:30 o'clock the police estimated that 7,000 persons were waiting for the gates to open, despte the threatening weather.

BOY KILLED UNDER WHEELS.

Tried to "Hitchon" and Fell Under Trailer Wagon.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 10.—Caught between two wagons of a tandem draught being taken north on 25th street late yesterday afternoon 5-year-old Thomas P. Cruce, was instantly killed. John Fuller, colored, 22 years old, driver of the wagon, was arrested.

Fuller sat on the seat of a garbage wagon, to which was hitched another wagon he wanted taken to his stable. Just as he reached the corner of 25th and Sybert streets young Cruce, he said, ran out from the side walk and attempted to get a seat on the tongue of the second vehicle. He missed his hold and fell to the pavement. The front wheels of the second wagon passed over the boy's head, causing instant death.

Madrid—President Poincare of France refused to attend the gala bull fight arranged in celebration of the Franco-Spanish festivities. He is a noted lover of animals.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Acting on charges of cruelty to convicts, made against the Huxford Orvin Naval Stores Co., Gov. Emmet O'Neal, of Alabama, canceled the contract for convict labor held by that firm for the last two years. The 34 convicts in the stockade at the camp at Atmore, Ala., were ordered removed to Mobile jail. Prisoners at this camp made affidavits that men were whipped to death in two instances, and that many prisoners were so badly beaten that they had to lie down to eat.

Sheriff Lewis and deputies have just left Lumberton, N. C., for Moss Neck, 9 miles distant, to quell an incipient riot that started late yesterday among 2,000 or 3,000 negroes and Croatan Indians of Robeson county, who had gathered at a mill pond picnicking and incidentally to trap fish when the water from the pond, covering several hundred acres, had been drawn off by the owners. Three negroes are reported dead, and an Indian deputy sheriff by the name of Lowrey seriously wounded.

Charles Sing, a wealthy Chinese merchant, was found murdered in his home in Kansas City, Mo., yesterday. The head had been nearly severed with a butcher knife. In the same room two years ago the body of Sing's American wife, Grace Kelly Sing, was found with a bullet in the head. The coroner pronounced it suicide. It is said Sing's success in business had aroused much jealousy among other Chinese in the local colony. A bank book showed a balance of $8,000. Sing also owned much real estate.

Driven insane by the grim surroundings of her home in the Queens county, N. Y., jail, for which she had been forced to leave her handsome house in Astoria, Mrs. Julia Schleth, wife of the warden, killed her 4-year-old son and shot herself to death early yesterday. Mrs. Schleth, who was the daughter of a wealthy florist, of Astoria, had lived since her marriage in a beautiful residence not far from the jail. Five months ago a new rule of the department of charities and corrections compelled the heads of jails to live within the jail building.

Claiming that she was married to Charlemagne Tower, Jr., on June 7, 1911, in New Haven, Conn., Mrs. Georgeanna Tower, formerly Miss Burdick, brought suit yesterday in Philadelphia against Charlemagne Tower, former Ambassador to Germany, for alleged alienation of her husband's affections. The young woman, who is now living in Philadelphia, with her mother, Mrs. George A. Burdick, declares that she does not desire pecuniary damages so much as to compel recognition by her husband and his family. She is 28 years old and formerly lived in New Haven. Young Tower, is 26, and was a junior at Yale when she met him. A desire that he secure his diploma, she says, prevented an earlier announcement of the marriage.

Miss Bright Kelly, 22 years old, a prominent society girl, of Covington, Ky., was killed, and two other young women and three men were injured early yesterday, when the big touring automobile in which they were riding got beyond the control of the driver and turned turtle on the Indian Hill road, near Madisonville.

A tornado tore its way through Custer county, Neb., yesterday evening, striking Broken Bow a glancing blow and doing only minor damage, but wrecking many buildings, and injuring a number of persons in the country districts. So far as reported, no one was killed.

More than 1,000 shots were fired and two men wounded in a melee between Italians at the mining town of Weaver, about 4 miles from Elkins, W .Va., Wednesday night, over who should marry an Italian grl, who is the belle of the foreign quarter here.

FAIR ATTRACTS PICKPOCKETS

Rural Visitors Prey to Crooks Who Relieve Them of Money.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

Farmer Says Negro Knocked Him Down — One Man Loses Four Quarts of Whiskey in Station.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 10.—Reports of robberies by pickpockets and the other thefts, which have been looked for during fair week, increased last night. Most of the visitors were visitors from rural sections.

W. M. Ellis, 66 years old, a farmer of Wilson, N. C., went to police headquarters last night shortly after 8 o'clock and said that he had been knocked down and robbed of $23 by a negro at Fifth and Broad streets at 7:30 o'clock. At first Ellis denied that he had been drinking, but later said that he had taken one "dram."

Ellis said he had the money in a wallet in his trousers' pocket, that the negro knocked him down, choked him and took it from his pocket. He exhibited a badly cut thumb as a result of the attack.

C. A. Miller, of Barton Heights, reported to Traffic Policeman Sims that his pocket was picked of a purse containing $5 and papers while he was aboard a Ginter Park Car which left First and Broad streets at 8:10 o'clock.

W. M. Long, of Pleasant Hill, Va., said a pickpocket got his purse containing $9 while aboard the same car. Neither could give any information which is likely to lead to the arrest of the thief, as the police were confident the same man robbed Miller and Long.

Crooks got busy in the vicinity of Elba Station. S. J. Sullivan, of Leland Station, Va., told Patrolman W. E. Clark that his pocket was picked of $3.10 and a railroad ticket while he was waiting for a train.

S. J. Seymour, of Milford, Va., reported that he was robbed of four quarts of whiskey while in the waiting room.

Mrs. R. S. Cardwell, of 909 East Clay street, complained that a jewel case containing six gold pins, two watch fobs and other articles, all valued at $40, had been stolen from her home.

While he was on his way to the fair grounds yesterday morning, L. M. Nance, of Charles City county, was robbed of $8 according to a report he made to the police.

Mr. Nance was on a street car near the entrance to the grounds when he felt some one shoulder him. As he left the car he felt in his pockets to see if he had his money safe and discovered his loss. He had taken the precaution, however, to put money in another pocket, so that the pickpocket, got only a small portion of what he had brought with him.

C. L. Ligon, of 1014 Semmes Ave., South Richmond, reported that he was robbed of a gold watch valued at $20.

PRINCESS' SUICIDE IN SHAME.

Fearing Scandal as Result of Motor Accident, Takes her Life.

Melun, France, Oct. 10.—The Criminal Court today acquitted Baron Hans von Bleichroede and Walter Palmer of responsibility for the death of a gypsy girl killed by an automobile August 8.

Palmer was the chauffeur of Princess Sophia of Saxe-Weimar, who committed suicide September 9. She was in the automobile at the time of the accident, and it was reported at the time of her suicide that she killed herself because she feared a scandal as the result of her visit to France in company with a young man whom she had been forbidden to meet.

While she was in France she and the young man went on several long automobiles drives in Frontableau forest, and was on one of these occasions that the accident occurred. Every effort was made to hush up the affair.

RICHMOND IS A CONVENTION CITY

American Bankers' Association to Meet There Next Year.

4,000 ARE EXPECTED.

Capital City of State Captures Organization in Walkover With Other Places.

Richmond, Ca., Oct. 10.—The news from Boston yesterday that the American Bankers' Association had selected Richmond for its 1914 convention, demonstrated anew this city's pre-eminent position as the South's most popular convention point. It was good news and brought satisfaction to the populous banking colony and to the city at large.

The bankers met in Richmond in 1900. Since that time they have shuttled between the big cities of the North and Middle West. The Richmond convention was made memorable by the launching of the American Institute of Banking as an institution for the training of young bankers. Since its birth in Richmond, the American Institute of Banking has grown into a membership of 18,000, with charters in every State in the Union. The annual convention of the organization, held in this city last month, attracted an attendance of 1,000.

The Boston convention, now in progress, has attracted 4,200 registered delegates. Richmond, it is believed, will do equally as well.

Richmond's last national convention of the year, the annual meeting of the American Gas Institute, convenes next Wednesday at the Jefferson Hotel for a four-day session. It concludes a long array of big trade and professional meetings that have this year rallied in Richmond, and will bring to this city 500 gas manufacturing experts from the private and municipal plants of the country.

For next year the convention program, although far from complete, is already imposing. February will see gathering of the nation's merchant tailors. The same month will bring the department of Superintendence of the National Education Association, the foremost organization of its kind in the country. Superintendent J. A. C. Chandler, of the public schools, estimates that it will attract an attendance of more than two thousand.

CRUSHED BY APPLE TRUCK.

Heavily Loaded Auto Skids Over Embankment and Driver and Helper Badly Hurt.

Greenwich, Conn., Oct. 10.—Two Yonkers men are dying at Greenwich Hospital as the result of their automobile truck, loaded with 50 barrels of apples, taking a jump over an embankment just at the edge of the village yesterday afternoon.

The driver, Dominick Mazzello, proprietor of a wholesale fruit house, has a broken leg and internal injuries, and his helper, Michael Davis, has a broken back, a broken leg and internal injuries. Mazello was thrown under the truck as it landed, but was cleared when it toppled over. Davis feet were pinned under the body of the truck, his head under the seat back and his body under a barrel of apples. His eyes were protruding an inch when he was extricated.

Mazello had come to Greenwich with the truck early in the morning and had filled the barrels at a farm. He was taking the load back and had passed through the village, when his car skidded, going down the steep hill. The car swung straight for an 8-year-old boy on his way home from school. The boy leaped ahead, saving himself by an inch, and the car went over the embankment 15 feet high. Mazello fell under the car, but was cleared when it toppled over. Davis stuck to the seat, but the loaded car came over on him and pinioned him to the ground.

WILSON BLEW UP DIKE.

Button Pressed in Washington to Start Things in Panama.

Washington, Oct. 10.—Pressing a key at the White House at 2 o'clock this afternoon, Eastern time, President Wilson released an electrical current that traveled overland and under sea to the Panama Canal to explode a charge of dynamite and destroy Gamboa dike. The dike was the last great physical obstruction to the opening of water communication between the two oceans, although the wreckage of the dike and two earth slides, one at Cucarachea and another at Gold Hill must be cut through before the canal actually can be opened.

Destruction of Gamboa dike was celebrated not only at the White House, but all along the Pacific Coast. Originally it had been intended to set off the charge at 9 o'clock in the morning, but President Wilson granted the request for a change to accommodate points in the Pacific time belt.

The blast was the largest ever attempted in the work on the Panama Canal. More than 1,000 holes had been drilled in the dike and each hole contained from 80 to 100 pounds of dynamite, amounting in the aggregate to 40 tons.

A fleet of dredges will attack the slides as soon as they have cleared the wreckage of the dike, and although Col. Goethals in his telegram to the canal commission made no prediction, it is believed it will be sible to have the lighter boats used by canal diggers to pass from ocean to ocean in a few weeks.

THOUGHT STATION SALOON.

Thirsty Man Learns Error When Police Decline to Serve Him.

Baltimore, Md.,Oct. 10.—Edging his way past four or five men who stood before the brass rail in the big outer room of the Northwestern Police Station today, a man, who afterwards gave his name as Samuel Neilson, of Brooklyn, attracted the attention of Desk Sergeant Reth.

"What'll you have?" asked the sergeant.

"I'll take a medium-sized beer," answered the man, tossing a nickel on the long-heavy desk- top.

"What??" said the sergeant.

"I'll take a medium sized beer,' repeated the man, "and if you haven't got a medium-size you can make it a big one."

"Say," yelled the officer, "this isn't a saloon. Get out of here, and be quick about it."

The man made his way slowly to the front door, looked up and down Pennsylvania Avenue, discovered a saloon directly opposite the station house and made tracks for it.

REVISED RETURNS IN SOME PLACES

Reports of Grand Juries in Amelia and Augusta Counties.

INCREASED INCOMES.

Campaign for Honest Returns in 1912 Added $38,000,000 to Tax Books of the State.

Richmond, Oct. 10.—In Amelia county the grand jury recently did a little investigating and discovered that $73,000 in bonds had been omitted in one district; that $4,421 in cash was not contained in the books and that incomes to the value of $4,574 were not included. These were placed on the books and ordered assessed for taxation. The total increase for that county is $89,593. The grand jury may make further inquiry.

The grand jury in Staunton also delved int othings, an dthat it did not make a hurried examination is revealed by the addition of $73,060 to the taxable values in that city. The tangible property aggregated just $4,600 more than the commissioner reported; intangible property increased $19,250, and incomes jumped $49,250.

In this connection it may be stated every county and city in the State will have a grand jury investigation of the same character, so that by the time all "corrections" are made the totals expected by Auditor Moore will not fall far short of his forecast of $50,000,000 increase in personal property this year.

Mr. Moore has his force at work on these figures at this time, and in a few days he expects to make public the advance sheets showing exactly what the commissioners have done this year. It is understood that the increase indicated—and incomes and "corrected returns are not included—will be close on to $40,000,000 in personal property. The increase in incomes will aggregate close on to $55,000, bringing that up to about $6,000,-000 for the entire state.

A perusal of the reports of the grand juries will show that those who escaped taxation are among the wealthiest people in the sections in which they live, professional men and others being named as the ones who had not been assessed for taxation.

Ehrman rendered a piano solo, Mr. B. Jaffa and Sidney Weil were heard in a violin solo, and Mr. Harry Fedder gave a vocal solo. At the conclusion of the social program refreshments were served. Miss Betsie Page has returned to Fairfax, from New York, where she has been visiting Mrs. Gaynor, widow of the late mayor of that city.

Representative H. D. Flood left Washington at midnight last night for New York to meet his fiancee, Miss Anna Portner, of Manassas, who landed today from Europe.

Miss Portner has been away several months visiting different points in England, France and Germany. It is generally understood they are to be married this fall, but the date has not yet been set. The arrangement of the final details has been delayed awaiting Miss Portner's return. It is expected that their plans and the date of the wedding will be announced shortly.

SABBATH OF SABBATHS

Jewish Day of Atonement Begins at Sunset Today and Continues Tomorrow

The Day of Atonement, the hollest day in the Jewish calendar, will begin at sunset today. Services will be held in the Jewish Synagogue on north Washington street at 7:30 o'clock tonight. They will be conducted by Rabbi Cohn, of the Hebrew College, Cincinnati. Its biblical designation is Yom ha-Kippurim, later shortened to Yom Kippur. According to Biblical tradition it is one of the cycle of holidays instituted by Moses; for we find it mentioned in Leviticus xxiii, 26-32, in the list of holidays. Its ceremonial is described in Lev. xvi, its sacrifice in numbers xxix, 7-11.

However, the Day of Atonement is not dependent on the sacrificial service prescribed in the Bible. Thus, after the destruction of the Temple in the year 70, when sacrifices were abolished, the Day of Atonement was able to survive, and of all the holidays of the Jewish calendar it has almost completely held its own in the hearts and observance of the Jewish people. Emphasis was laid upon confession, penitence, prayer and good deeds. It became the day of 'afflicting one's soul," (Isaiah viii, 3, 5,) which was interpreted as meaning fasting from the eve of Atonement until the following evening. As in the Biblical ceremonial, confession continues to be an important feature of the service; yet, while confession brings forgiveness of sins between man and his Maker, sins between man and man are not forgiven until redress is made for the injury. The eve of Atonement Day, therefore, becomes the occasion for the cessation of feuds and ill-will. And the Day of Atonement is known as the Sabbath of Sabbaths—when we are at peace with all the world.

The service of the Day of Atonement beginning with Kil Nidre service on the eve of Atonement is a continuous one throughout the entire day. The prayers in the Sygagogue are intoned in plaintive penitential tones. The spirit of the masterly sermon of Isaiah (Is. lvii, 4-9, which is the prophetical portion of the morning's reading, is manifested throughout.

Famous Whittall RUGS

The famous Whittall Rugs are the highest achievement in the art of weaving rugs by machinery. Into their making, for more than a generation, have gone the finest materials and painstaking care. Every thread of wool is imported from the mountainous regions of Persia, Afghanistan, and Caucasus. Every particle of dyestuff is tested repeatedly; every improvement that inventive genius can suggest is utilized in their smooth, lustrous finish.

Whittall rugs rival the Oriental in both pattern and texture; practically the only difference between them and the Oriental Rug is in the making. Oriental Rugs are made by human fingers, while steel fingers weave every thread of the famous Whittall makes. A wonderful range of exquisite designs and colorings; rugs adapted to every purpose, living room, dining room, library, &c.

We invite every one interested in floro coverings to see our new fall patterns.

Prices range for the Anglo-Persian from size 22x36 inches, at $4.25; to size 11 ft. 3-in. by 15 ft., at $102.

IN THE DARK WITH LIONS.

Man-Killer, Out of Temper, Subdued by Showman.

Richmond, Oct. 10.—When the electric lights went out at the State Fair Wednesday night there were 300 people who witnessed one of the most thrilling scenes that ever took place in Richmond. It was in Ferari's animal show.

In a cage of five African lions was a quiet young man, who had already finished the first half of a most daring act. Tangier, one of the most ferocious beasts in captivity, had given the keeper much trouble. The animal seemed out of humor from the very start of the show, and before it was half over many lashes from a rawhide had been applied to the lion's back, to say nothing of the fact that the trainer had resorted to the use of the prong, a thing rarely used in this performance.

Just as the animal had been driven to a pedestal the entire tent was thrown into darkness.

Twice has Tangier killed his man. Once Bonito, at Coney Island, fell before his huge paw. Alfred Clarke was also killed at Lawrenceville, in this State by the same lion several years ago.

When the tent was thrown into darkness there was a brief second when it looked panicky. Then a "spieler" began to talk of his songs, and announced that he had two souvenirs for every one who attended the performance. The songs were new, he said, and the gifts consisted of a pair of cuff buttons and a nail file and ear cleaner. Thus was trouble averted.

In the cage the keeper had quietly backed against the wall. Tangier was in front of him, and two dim lanterns were rushed to the cage. In the shadows stood the keeper. His right hand held a whip, and as the lantern flash showed his position the woman who handles the leopards quickly passed a revolver through the bars.

With his left hand the keeper got the pistol. Then quickly he jumped behind an overturned pedestal, threw two others in front of the row of lions, four of whom were seated on pedestals, gave a quick flip of the whip to Tangier, who had crawled toward the trainer and was crouched five feet in front of him, laughed, threw open the door leading back to the rear cages and the scene had ended.

As the rear door of the exhibition cage swung open, the lions made a rush toward the rear of the cage and were lost in the back hallway.

There were no beads of perspiration on the forehead of the lion trainer, but those who witnessed his act were in such suspense that an audible sigh went through the tent as the beasts left the arena and the keeper walked smiling to safety, just as the electric lights flashed up.

Johannesburg—An employe of the Randfontein mine named Cunningham, became suddenly demented and shot his wife and sister-in-law dead. He then went to a school where he shot and killed his three children and committed suicide.

GOVERNORS IN CONFERENCE.

Chesapeake Bay Fish Supply Subject of Meeting in Washington.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 10.—Governor Mann left for Washington today to meet Governor Goldsborough, of Maryland, and Secretary of Agriculture Houston for a conference in regard to the Chesapeake Bay fish situation. Very conflicting reports have been made from different sources in regard to the run of edible fish in the upper waters of Chesapeake Bay, a recent government report being to the effect that the number had been greatly reduced. Government officials, therefore, started the machinery in motion to bring about a conference between the Governors of the two states with a view of securing uniform legislation for the protection of certain fish, which it is reported are now being caught in large numbers by the menhaden fishing fleets and ground up for fertilizer.

SOCIALISTIC CAPRICIOUSNESS.

A mob of several hundred angry citizens of St. Mary's, Ohio, a few days ago stormed the office of Socialist Mayor Wilkinson in the city hall, and the mayor barely escaped rough treatment. Some one in the crowd had brought a rope.

Social Service Director Schrienback had shut off the city water supply of the Standard Chain Company's plant until they had paid about $500 for having a meter installed. He claimed he had warned the company to do this, as tax payers had been forced to install their own meters. The manager of the plant immediately shut down the factory, and many of the employes were in the crowd that went to the mayor's office.

The Socialists have been in office in St. Mary's for two years and another demonstration against the socialist officials had been made by the citizens.

From time immemorial men who have been rushed into high positions by spasmodic political upheavals have found themselves later at the mercy of mobs. The history of the French revolution attests this fact and it was realized by Robespiere, Danton and others when they were being led to the guillotine.

The mobbing of the socialist mayor of the Ohio town shows that the Socialists are as capricious as some political organization of bygone days.

WHY MASONRY IS TOLERANT.

There is a quality of spontaneity in the toleration which Masonry accords to the religious opinions of all men, which, to the unthinking and the uninformed, might appear to indicate an indifference toward such things. The fact is that the reverse is true.

Not only the secret work of Freemasonry, from first to last, but the universal pronouncement of its ablest writers, confirms the general Masonic practice in this regard. Whatsoever a man will, that let him believe, if only he looks to one supreme grand architect of the universe, the maker and finisher and sustainer of all created things—let him acknowledge the Christ, let him follow Buddha, let him cry Allah il Allah with the Mohammedans, or let him worship with those occult brethern of the far east whose creed is an unspoken one and whose silent mystery strikes involuntary awe into the most thoughtless beholder.

Masonry makes no particular virtue of toleration. It takes it for granted. It regards it as one of the things which are a matter of course. It accords to its bitterest enemies the absolute right of conscience. It insists that every individual shall have the right to decide such things for himself, free of the coercion or restraint of any other individual or power. It is the champion of personal independence in things spiritual, as it is in things political. It is the evangel of individualism. Toleration is inevitably the second member in the Masonic equation, approach it from what angle you will.

There is a reason for this which strikes deeper than most men and Masons suppose. It is based upon the origin and character of Freemasonry as an institution. It is tinged and tinctured with the mission of masonry to mankind. It is this:

There is a common basis for all the great religious beliefs of the world, a little strip of common ground upon which all may meet and mingle and combine. This common ground lies within the teachings of the ancient wisdom religion, which is today but little more than a tradition among men. It crops out here and there, gleams of pure gold shining through the dross of supersitition and priestcraft and error which has accumulated through the years until the primal truth may be come at only through much digging and sweat—and through risk, on the part of him who dares to delve, of being accused of lifting his hand against holy things; for it is not to be marveled at that the attendants in the temple, after the years have passed, sometimes fail to discriminate between pure gold and pewter when both are cast in the same mold and both are covered with incrustations.

Now, Freemasonry is a child of the same mother, of blood-kin to all the descendants of the ancient wisdom religion, but is peculiar in this—that instead of attempting to enforce specific lessons of her own, she finds her office in portraying through symbols and allegories the form and fashion of that ancient fount of worship, and so suggests rather than enforces the truths and precepts she has to communicate to men.

This being true, it can be readily understood that Freemasonry is of necessity broader in scope and wider in toleration than any "revealed religion" or school of theology committed to any one of the various attempts which have been made to perpetuate truth upon the earth. Akin to all, insisting upon specific form in none, it contents itself with perpetuating the form of that ancient source whence all sprang.

It is not to be overlooked in passing that not even among the rank and file of Freemasonry is this fact generally understood, and that in consequence symbol and allegory have come to be largely accepted by the craft as truth itself instead of truth mirrored, or are given a meaning largely or wholly at variance with their real intent.

MARKET VERY QUIET.

Few Changes Noted in Produce Quotations Since Last Week.

There has been but very little change in market qutations since last week. Prices continue firm and there is no prospect of any lower prices for the better grade of meats and vegetables. Eggs continue scarce during the past week and prices are firm at from 35 to 40 cents for the best nearby products, with every prospect that they would advance still higher within the next week or two. Butter advanced somewhat, the cheaper grades being scarce, while the extra creamery brought from 40 to 42 cents per pound.

The markets are plentifully supplied with the very finest grapes, and fuits and the vegetables are also of very good quality. There was some fine cauliflower on exhibit today at 25 and 35 cents a head. Green corn brought 25 cents per dozen ears, celery sold at 5 cents per bunch. Nice [illegible] and sweet potatoes were seen on a number of the stands.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

Seniority Rule in Choice of Presiding Bishop to go

New York, Oct. 10.—It was High Church against Low yesterday at the General Convention of the Episcopal Church at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, Morningside Heights, and High Church won. The amendment changing the construction of the church and creating what opponents of the plan declared would be the office of an "American Episcopal Pope" was passed, 59 dioceses voting in favor of the change and 8 voting aganist it.

This amendment, which was a holdover from the convention of 1910, changes the standing rule of the church for more than a century that the primus, or presiding bishop, comes to that office by virtue of his seniority. The amendment provides for his election at each convention of the term of three years.

There was a strong opposition in the House of Deputies. Low churchmen hotly protested that the move was an entering wedge by which party politics would be exerted to keep a man of certain stamp of churchmanship in office all the time.

This was the only amendment voted yesterday, but to the committee on canons was referred a motion which is to be the center of the fight over the change of name of the church. This memorial was presented by the diocese of California and provided that the little page of the prayer book be amended to read:

"The Book of Common Prayer and Administration of the Sacrament and other rites and ceremonies of the Holy Catholic Church according to the use of that branch thereof known as the Episcopal Church of the United States of America."

There was an immediate opposition from the Low Churchmen which ended only when the motion was referred to committee. It will be several days before the House of Deputies takes this up, but a stiff fight is expected then before the motion is carried or quashed.

When the general convention met for business yesterday morning it had before it a consideration for amendment which will change the construction of the Church and, as it pointed out, will be the loophole or entering wedge for the much feared in many quarters, "American Episcopal Pope."

The amendment in question is a leftover from the convention of 1910 and became the first order of business today. If it passes it will change the standing rule of the Church for more than a century that the Primus, or Presiding Bishop, comes to that office by virtue of his seniority. The proposed amendment sets forth that he shall be elected at each convention, and that each term shall be for three years. This is the opening wedge, as is shown, and was hotly opposed today by those who claim that party politics will be exerted to keep a man of certain stamp of churchmanship in office all the time. It is sure to result, many declare, in making more bitter than ever the breach between High and Low Churchmen.

Another proposed amendment deals with the representation in the convention for missionary districts. This amendment was also left over missionary districts. shrdlu mhtmht from the Cincinnati convention, and is merely the mater of an aechnical wording of several clauses.

PREPARE THE INDIVIDUAL PUPIL.

The TEMPLE School

—OF—

at 1417 G St., N. W., has for its slogan "Prepare the Individual Pupil." From the day he enters he receives individual attention. He is never held back because of ambition in another pupil, nor, on the other hand, is he forced beyond his individual capacity. This specialization is the real reason for the excellent standing of the Temple School among business men of Washington.
